D Sir.

The Generals Letter gives me peculiar satisfaction. Whether to be sorry or glad, not to have received it before our pardon was granted, I am at a loss. On the whole we did the best we could. Samples will present, and Regs they may be made. Whether Little Battle or big Battle, I am easy. One perhaps is at the head the other Major Ogden the Tail. I expect to call upon you to morrow.

All the Shoes on hand I have sent.

Yours sincerely

James Caldwell

Col Dayton
